This notice is to advise you of a threat directed at the University

Date: November 19, 2015

Incident: Bomb and firearm threat

The Department of Public Safety, out of an abundance of caution, is alerting members of the University community about a non-specific bomb and firearm threat that made reference to a student protest on campus.

In response to the threat, which was received in an email, the Department of Public Safety is enhancing campus patrols and actively investigating the threat in conjunction with other law enforcement agencies.

Members of the University community are urged to remain vigilant, check their surroundings and report any suspicious activity to the Department of Public Safety at 609-258-3333 or 911.

If you see something, please say something.

We remind all community members of our general crime prevention tips listed on our website, www.princeton.edu/publicsafety/CrimeTips.htm as well as the tips listed below.

- Report suspicious persons or activity immediately by calling the Department of Public Safety or the Princeton Police.
- Do not leave personal items unattended at any time.

The Federal Clery Act requires that universities with a campus public safety agency create and maintain a daily log, recording all alleged crimes reported to its police or security department, including the nature, date, time, and general location of each alleged crime and the disposition of the complaint. This log must be available for public inspection, except where disclosure of this information is prohibited by law or would jeopardize the confidentiality of a victim. DPS prepares the "Clery Daily Crime Log," and it can be found on the DPS website at: <http://web.princeton.edu/sites/publicsafety>.
