

From: Princeton Alert response@princeton.edu
Subject: Timely Warning-Fondling Incident
Date: September 17, 2015 at 10:14 PM
To: izivkovi@princeton.edu

PA

Princeton University Department of Public Safety

Timely Warning

This notice is to advise you of an incident that occurred near campus

Date: Thursday, Sept. 17, 2015

Incident: Fondling

The Department of Public Safety is alerting University community members of a reported fondling incident that occurred just outside Friend Center, at the corner of William Street and Charlton Street.

A female student reported that at about 8:27 p.m. she was walking on Charlton Street when an unidentified male grabbed her buttocks. The suspect then fled north on Charlton Street toward Nassau Street. The victim lost sight of him at Nassau Street. The woman was not injured.

The suspect is described as male as Hispanic, wearing a grey hooded sweatshirt and blue jeans, approximately 160-170 lbs, about 5 foot 5 inches tall, 25-30 years old, with black hair, and no facial hair.

The Department of Public Safety and Princeton Police Department responded immediately and searched the area but the suspect was not located in the area.

Directed patrols will remain in the area through the night.

If you have any information on this incident please contact the Department of Public Safety at 609-258-3333.

To maintain the safety and security of the campus, Public Safety reminds all community members to follow the crime prevention tips listed on our website (<http://web.princeton.edu/sites/publicsafety/CrimeTips.htm>), including:

- Report suspicious activity immediately.
When running in isolated areas, run with a friend

- when running in isolated areas run with a friend.
- If you must remain in a building after hours, use the buddy system when leaving.
- Stay alert and tuned in to your surroundings. Be aware and prepared.
- Stand tall and walk confidently; do not show fear.
- Trust your instincts, and if you do not feel comfortable in a place or situation, leave.

The Federal Clery Act requires that universities with a campus public safety agency must, in a manner that is timely and will aid in the prevention of similar crimes, report to the campus community crimes that fall into certain categories and that are considered by the university to represent a continuing threat to the campus community. The Department of Public Safety refers to these notices as "Campus Safety Alerts." This Campus Safety Alert is issued according to this requirement.

- Emergency: 9-1-1 on campus or (609) 258-3333 off campus or cell phones
- Non-emergencies: (609) 258-1000

T F C A

T D P S

T

T T