Forbes College south driveway closed until Monday, Oct. 7

Please be advised that the south driveway entrance from Alexander Street to Forbes College is closed for manhole construction work until Monday, Oct. 7. The north driveway remains open and should be used for all vehicular access in and out of Forbes College.

Please use caution when walking or biking through this area, and stay on the designated temporary pathways.

Detour routes will be posted and Princeton Police will be onsite during the closures.
