

Subject: Campus Traffic Alert

Date: Monday, September 9, 2013 2:16:09 PM Eastern Daylight Time

From: Donald P. Reichling (sent by All Employees E-list <allemp@Princeton.EDU>)

To: allemp@Princeton.EDU

Update: Sept. 9, 2013

New Pedestrian Path Open

A new pedestrian path from the temporary Princeton Station into campus will open this afternoon. This path is located slightly north of the temporary station and connects into the campus south of the West (Lot 7) Garage.

Motorists entering and exiting from the West (Lot 7) Garage are advised that new stop signs and crosswalks have been installed as part of this project. Please use caution as you enter and exit the garage, be aware of the new signage and watch for pedestrians in the area.

A map of the pedestrian routes in the Arts and Transit project area are available here

If you have questions, please email

Donald P. Reichling

Administrative Captain

Department of Public Safety

Princeton University

200 Elm Drive

Princeton, NJ 08544

Tel: (609) 258-9701

Fax: (609) 258-9773

E-mail: donaldr@princeton.edu

<http://www.princeton.edu/publicsafety>

Emergency: 9-1-1 on campus or (609) 258-3333 off campus or cell phones

Non-emergencies: (609) 258-1000